

Southeast Oakland Coalition

Youth Group

Come join a fantastic group of young leaders that are using their voices to change the world around them by educating their peers on vaping, underage drinking and marijuana/tobacco misuse.

- Host fun and informational events to bring awareness to drug misuse such as movie nights and dances
- Consists of Ferndale High School students
- Opportunities for community service hours and monetary compensation for their time
- Educate their peers on harmful effects of drug misuse
- Opportunities for leadership development and training
- Opportunity to connect with peers and network with leaders around the community
- Meetings are at 12:30p.m., every other Thursday and food is provided.
- Location: 1st floor Resource Center, across the hall from Room 105
